Have You Learned Irregular Verbs? starring Doc Cee and Miss Livy

Book Summary

Verbs, which are words that show action or a state of being, are one of the eight parts of English speech. One particular type of verb, called Irregular Verbs, should be spoken and written correctly when used, so that others clearly understand the message you are trying to communicate. Do you know all about irregular verbs and how and when to use them?

In this UReadULead selection, Doc Cee and Miss Livy begin learning about irregular verbs at school, but when they get home, they decide their learning is not complete. So, they set a goal, which is to learn all about irregular verbs before nightfall. While studying at home, they get creative, and they invent games to play to help them learn. Read along in the story and find out if Doc Cee and Miss Livy master the usage of irregular verbs, or will they need to spend additional time studying at home and in school to reach their goal.

Character Trait(s)

Being Studious, Sincere, and Smart

When it comes to learning, being studious, being sincere, and being smart are three character traits that go hand-in-hand. A studious person develops a habit of learning and gaining knowledge without being told to do so. Being sincere about learning is equally important. It means you want to learn all that you can. And when you are sincere about learning, there is nothing wrong with asking for help. The third trait is being smart. To be smart refers to your ability to gain knowledge, think, and apply what you have learned to solve problems and make good decisions.

In this story, Doc Cee and Miss Livy study and learn about irregular verbs by themselves. And they are sincere about learning because they do not stop until they have learned the full list of irregular verbs. They demonstrate their smartness by creating games while learning. Doc Cee and Miss Livy know the more they sincerely study, the more they will learn, and the better they will perform in school, at home, and in the community. Doc Cee and Miss Livy think it is “cool” to be smart and so should you.

Who Are Doc Cee and Miss Livy?

Doc Cee and Miss Livy are really cool twins who share exciting adventures at home, in school, and anywhere they end up going.

Doc Cee, the elder twin, is a genius known worldwide for his advanced math and science skills. He is highly intelligent, enterprising, and athletically inclined. A natural leader, he finds himself at the forefront of situations. And he always wears his signature hat!

Miss Livy is the loveable, adorable twin sister who uses her wit to aid her brother and friends in their adventures. Like Doc Cee, she is academically gifted and athletically inclined. She loves reading, science, law, music, and gymnastics. Sometimes, she and her friends engage in learning adventures of their own.
